

-Advocacy/Activism in the Academy-

Spring 2009
ANT 3930 - Section 5370
MWF - Period 7

Where does the scholarly elite fit into the global landscape of social change?

Do academics have an ethical obligation to uncover injustice in the world?

How have students and educators responded to these questions in the past?

What are the current theoretical and methodological answers to these questions?

Protesting the NATO cluster bombing of Yugoslavia - Salzburg, May 1999

Course Topics:

Critical Perspectives on Society - Engaged Pedagogy - Queer Rights
Elite-Minority Relations - Immigration - International War
Environmental Mismanagement - Multiple Truths - Theories of Practice

Instructor: Edward Gonzalez-Tennant - Ph.D. Candidate in Anthropology please contact him at etennant@ufl.edu if you have any questions about the course or enrolling